

Van der Vijverstraat

Van der Vijverstraat, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, October 2007 theatre lamps, light computer 85 x 5 x 3 m.
Tentoonstelling: Polderlicht 4

An installation consisting of computer-controlled theatre lamps illuminating the colored panels on the houses on Van der Vijverstraat in Amsterdam. These colors are reproduced on the pavement in front of the houses. The colored panels are originally a work of art by artist Frank Bragigand entitled 'Restoration of the daily life'.
